Conference Overview

The 2025 Scripps Memorial Hospital La Jolla (SMHLJ) Trauma Research Symposium will offer Scripps Health staff, health care providers, and community members a chance to explore the latest advancements in trauma research at SMHLJ. This interdisciplinary event will unite Scripps Health clinicians, researchers, and a nationally recognized keynote speaker to share insights and educate attendees about recent and ongoing research initiatives. Discussions will emphasize the clinical implications, broader applicability of findings, and future directions in trauma research. The symposium aims to enhance awareness of research efforts and foster greater engagement within the organization.

Educational Objectives

After attending this live activity, participants should be able to:

- Summarize recent developments in trauma research at SMHLJ.
- Identify strategies to incorporate new evidence-based strategies into clinical practice.
- Discuss the impact of SMHLJ's trauma research on the local community, as well as the generalizability to the region and on a national scale.
